

THE CAT IN THE HAT IN IRAQ

The Cat In The Hat In Iraq.

This was no time for play.

This was no time for fun.

This was no time for UN resolutions.

There was work to be done.

I am Saddam. Saddam-I-am.

That Saddam-I-am! That Saddam-I-am!

I do not like that Saddam-I-am.

Saddam must go, must go you see.

He has lots of bad plans, he has WMD.

He has WMDs that you can't even see.

You can't ever see it but we know it's there.

It's there in Iraq and one day we'll know where.

And don't take it from me - you can ask
Tony Blair.

Could you find them in train?

We could not, would not on a train.

Not in a car, not in a plane.

Not in a lab, not in the sand,
not in the palace, not in the land.
We could not find any WMD.

I don't care, said the Prez.

I do not care a bit.

We've invaded now

so I don't give a...

Oh – that last word must have been written by Donald Rumsfeld. Goodnight
